GOT QUESTIONS?

GENERAL

Q: When is the best time to visit Canada?

Canada is a destination that changes with seasons. In winter's temperatures in the winter can fall as low as minus 30 degrees Celsius which the temperatures also reach 35 degrees Celsius high in summer season. In between these two seasons there are spring months when leaves start growing and the country is covered with greenery. Leaves start changing colors in the autumn season and all the greenery is transformed to a burnt orange haven.

December to March - Winter

Winter is cold across the nation. Temperatures in coastal cities like Vancouver, northern territories, and flatlands are milder. Although if you wish to experience adventure sports like skating and skiing then winter season is perfect for you. If you are lucky you can also witness the beauty of Northern Lights.

March to June - Spring

Similar to winter, spring can be cold too if you are traveling from a country like India. In the month of May, you will get to experience warmer climate along with beautiful scenery, flowers, leaves and greenery blossoming in the environment.

July and August - Summer

Travel season in Canada is during summer. In this season the destination offers best of attractions, hiking trails and so much more.

September to December - Autumn

Autumn season in Canada is all about beautiful sites. The country goes through a major transformation from luscious green to golden brown. This is the time when you can enjoy most outdoor activities with lesser crowd than summer season and take in the stunning scenery.
