GOT QUESTIONS?

GENERAL

Q: Is Dubai open for tourists?

Dubai being a second largest emirate is now ready to welcome travelers from all corners of the world. The Supreme committee of Crisis and disaster management in a press release stated that Dubai would reopen for tourists from 7th July 2020.

Q: Do I need a Covid-19 test done when travelling to Dubai?

Yes, everyone who are traveling out to Dubai from any destination must have a printed negative Covid 19 PCR test declaration in English or Arabic and the test must be directed before 96 hours (for example 4 days) of the takeoff.

Q: What if I test positive after reaching Dubai airport?

If you undergo a test at the airport, you have to stay in your hotel or a residence until and unless you receive the test result. And if the test results are positive you need to undergo 14 days isolation and follow the guidelines by Dubai Health Authority.

Q: Are children and newborn kids subject to Covid-19 tests?

A recent announcement has brought in a sigh of relief to a lot of passengers that the Kids under 12 years of age traveling from India to UAE need not to undergo the COVID PCR test.

Q: Are there any rules to follow when in Dubai?

Responsibilities of travelers:

- Travelers should strictly follow the isolation guidelines in case of any symptom and the test is positive
- Take precautionary measures like wear masks, use sanitizers and maintain social distancing
- Disclose any symptom before traveling by filling the form provided by the airlines
- Tourists will have to bear the costs of examination and treatment abroad if they are infected with Covid 19, hence they all are advised to have International health insurance before travelling.

Q: Do tourists need to be quarantined mandatorily?

Travelers, who are able to show valid, recognized tests and are not showing any Covid-19 symptoms, will not be quarantined or tested in Dubai. However, those who fail to undergo the test before traveling will be screened by the medics on the arrival at Dubai airport and if the test results are positive you need to undergo 14 days isolation and follow the guidelines by Dubai Health Authority.

Q: Are there any restrictions in Dubai? What is open or closed?

As Dubai announces the relaxation of some restrictions all the shopping malls, high-street shops, souqs and all the entertainment and leisure attractions like Dubai Aquarium, Burj Khalifa, water parks are now ready to welcome tourists.

Q: How to reach Dubai?

By Air: Dubai has the metropolis airport of the emirates. Flights land here from all countries. Some popular airports in Dubai are Al Maktoum International Airport that is 32km southwest Dubai in Jebel Ali.

The second Airport is Dubai International Airport which is located in Dubai itself. It is located in the Emirates of Abu Dhabi. Some of the international flights like Emirates, Fly Dubai, Spice Jet, Air India, Jet Airways and Indigo, Kuwait take you to Dubai from India.

Q: Do I need a visa to visit Dubai from India?

Yes, Indian residents do require a visa to visit Dubai. It takes around 4-6 days to process a tourist visa. According to the new Dubai Visa policy, Indian citizens can get visa-on-arrival valid for 14 days if they hold a residence visa for the US or UK countries. All you need to do is to fill a form on arrival and pay an approximate sum of Rs 2,250.

Q: What is the best time to visit Dubai?

The best time to visit Dubai is throughout the winter months, from November to April. January and February see overwhelming traveler traffic due to the Dubai Shopping Festival, which brings life to the city. Dubai is hot in summer but during this season you can get great deals in comparison to other months.

Q: What is the best mode to commute in Dubai?

Dubai is a city where everything goes right, and when it comes to commuting Dubai is way beyond our imagination. Here are some of the best ways to commute to Dubai.

Metro: The Dubai Metro framework spans 75 km with the majority of the course covering Dubai's fundamental highway. There are carriages dedicated to women and children, as well as VIP carriages upfront. Go, gold class, get a drivers' eye view (these trains are driverless so this cabin gets the best view).

Careem or Uber: Careem is Dubai's home-grown driver service, which allows you to book a range of private cars as well as RTA taxis, plus you have the flexibility to pay by card or cash. Simply download the app and there you go! Uber is equally popular, particularly with travelers who already have the app.

Q: Which sim card is reasonably priced in Dubai?

Some of the best and reasonably priced sim cards in Dubai are Etisalat, Digi, Virgin Mobile etc. They are easily available at airport and mobile stores in the city.
