Wayanad

Today Morning after breakfast proceed for full day sightseeing covering either Meenmuttery waterfalls and Banasurashagar dam (if not visited on earlier day) or Edakkal caves and Soolichipara waterfalls. (any 2 set of sightseeings can be done because of distant locations)

Meenmuttery waterfalls : this waterfall is one of the topmost attractions in Wayanad. The three tiered waterfall, at a height of 300m is the biggest waterfalls in Wayanad and the second largest in Kerala. The name 'Meenmuttery' derived from the concept that the fishes are blocked here. 'Meen' means 'fish' and 'Muttery' means 'blocked' and thus 'Meenmuttery'. To reach this waterfall, you will have to go for a two kilometer trek through the moist deciduous forest. Though it seems to be difficult, you will forget all the tiresome of the journey, once you reach the waterfalls. Meenmuttery waterfall is considered to be a dangerous spot. So, you should be more careful while playing with the water. The best time to visit Meenmuttery is from October to May. Visiting during monsoon season is not recommended.

Edakkalcaves : Edakkal caves are famous for its pictorial paintings (cave paintings), which are considered to be of 6000 B C. To reach the caves, one has to trek through the Ambukuttery Mala. It will take around 45 minutes to climb the hill and you will never get disappointed in your trip to these historic caves. Edakkal is the only known place in India with Stone Age carvings. You can see here carvings belonging to Neolithic and Mesolithic age. The human figures of these caves have raised hair and some have masks. They all have archeological significance and are interesting too. Along with these pictorial carvings, you can also watch Tamil and Brahmi Script in Edakkal caves. Edakkal is said to have some links with Indus Valley Civilization too. Around 400 signs were discovered recently, which had shown its relationship with the ancient civilization.

Soolichipara waterfalls : Soolichipara waterfall is a three tiered waterfall at Vellarimala in Wayanad. This waterfall, surrounded by dense green forest, is also known as Sentinel Rock Waterfall. A 20 minute drive from Meppadi in Wayanad will take you to this splendid waterfall. The name Soolichipara derived from the words 'soochi' and 'para' means 'rock' and 'needle'. The name given is apt as you can see needle shaped rock here.

You have to walk around 2 km to reach the waterfall, where vehicles can't move further. You have to pay a nominal fee for entrance and camera. From the entrance you need to descend down to reach the falls. The water here cascades down from a height of 100 to 200 ft and this waterfall is an ideal place for trekking and rock climbing. You can sight a pool beneath this falls and here you can go for swimming and bathing. Best time to visit Soolichipara waterfall is during monsoon season as you can see the waterfall at its fullest. Evening at leisure to enjoy the resort and its activities. Dinner & Overnight stay at hotel.
